

ESTONIAN AMATEUR OPEN 2022

CONDITIONS OF COMPETITION

1. GENERAL

1.1 Date and place

20.-22.05.2022, Saaremaa Golf & Country Club

1.2 Format

The Champions shall be decided over 54 holes in stroke play. Competition is in accordance with the Rules of Golf as approved by R&A Rules Limited, the Estonian Golf Association Hand Card and Code of Conduct, the Local Rules approved by the Committee and the Conditions herein.

WAGR points will be awarded in this competition.

1.3 Winner and prizes

The winners of the Championship shall be the Estonian Amateur Open Champions for a period of one year. In addition, the first three places in the competition classes will be awarded with prizes. Mementos will be awarded to the best male and female mid-amateur who is at least 25 years old on the first day of the competition and to the best male and female senior who are at least 50 years old on the first day of the competition.

1.4 Eligibility, classes and tees

Amateur players who own WHS HCPI can participate in the competition. For men, WHS HCPI should be 12 or better and for women 18 or better.

The competition will be held in two classes:

- men (white tees, 6316 meters)
- ladies (blue tees, 5636 meters)

A minimum number of players per class is 6.

1.5 Number of competitors

The starting field will comprise 144 competitors. If the number of entries exceeds 144, places in the starting field will be decided by the Committee based on WAGR ranking and preferring players with lower HCPI. The Committee has also the right to include players with higher HCPI if the number of competitors doesn't exceed 144.

There are a minimum of 30 starting places for each class.

1.6 Times of starting and groups

On the first day, the three-member groups and start times will be determined by the Committee's decision. On the second day the starts are in reverse order of the first day. On the final day, the groups of three will be assembled using the players' 36 holes aggregate scores where the low scores start later. If the score of the 36 holes of the players is equal, their rankings will be determined by the results of the stroke play on the course last 18, 9, 6, 3 and 1 holes.

Ladies start first except up to two leading groups which will start in front of the men's leading groups starting last.

1.7 Cut

Maximum of 78 players will qualify for the last day. Cut is determined in proportion with the number of participants in the competition classes, but not less than 18 players in each class and taking into account the principle of triple flights. If two or more players are tied, then their rankings will be determined by the result of the stroke play on the course last 18, 9, 6, 3, and 1 holes.

1.8 Decision of ties

In the event that the first place is divided by two or more players with equal results, the winner shall be decided in a sudden-death format play-off immediately after the competition on holes decided by the Committee. Winner will be a player with the lowest score after the play-off hole. The player with the highest number of strokes will be the last in the play-off. If the lowest score is achieved by two or more players, then the play-off will continue on the holes decided by the Committee until the winner is identified. If two or more players drop out with the same score, their rankings will be determined by the result of the stroke play on the course last 18, 9, 6, 3, and 1 holes. If there is still a tie, then the better score is decided by lot.

If the rest of the medals (except for the first place) and mementos remain divided by two or more competitors, then their rankings will be determined by the best course last 36, 18, 9, 6, 3 and 1 holes. If the tie remains, then the better score is decided by lot.

In the case of a tie result of places outside the medals, the players will receive a shared place in the protocol.

1.9 Committee

Exceptionally, the Committee has the right to make changes to the conditions of competition.
